19 07 2024 - Clinical Research: Career and Growth

Dr. Bharti Fegade
Co-ordinator

The Gahlot Institute of Pharmacy, in collaboration with the MITCON Biotechnology and Pharmaceutical Centre, successfully conducted a seminar titled 'Clinical Research Growth and Career Opportunities'. This event was aimed at providing valuable insights into the dynamic field of clinical research, highlighting the latest trends and opportunities for career advancement. The seminar was delivered by experienced industry person, Mr. Abhijit Gurjar, who has 10 years of experience in pharmacovigilance. Students gain knowledge about the various roles available in clinical research, the essential skills required, and potential career paths. This collaboration seeks to bridge the gap between academia and industry, empowering students and professionals to make informed decisions about their careers in clinical research. This event was coordinated by Dr. Bharti Fegade.
